

KENNETH HOLMER, CPA

PARTNER

Audit, Tax & Advisory

Kenneth Holmer has more than 39 years of experience in public accounting at Miller Kaplan Arase LLP, and specializes in providing auditing and accounting services to labor organizations and their related entities. Ken has a long history of experience learning the functions of labor organizations, starting with his father, who was President of National Association of Letter Carriers Branch No. 1292 in Southern California. Ken worked in the retail food industry and was a member of United Food and Commercial Workers Union Local 905. He has used the specialized knowledge gained from his extensive background with labor organizations into providing exceptional quality professional services on all matters relevant to these unique organizations.
